Greetings,

My name is [Redacted], I was looking into gaining more information on being a participant in clinical trials of different subject matter. Any information that can start me off of this cause will be helpful, I have been doing my own research but so far nothing has been conclusive then just asking a clinical researcher. If there information on participating that can be sent via email I'd greatly appreciate it, I'm ready to support a cause that benefits the world at large. Thank You

Sincerely,
