Good afternoon –

Yes it is okay to use the expired version. The form that expired on April 30, 2015 has not been updated yet either so it is okay to use the expired form.

Kind regards,

Hi,

I have a clinical trial site that is using the old version of the 1572, the one before Continuation Pages.

I wanted to confirm that it was acceptable. The content of the form hasn't changed. I believe that the site may not be the most tech-savvy and prefers the older version.

Can you confirm it's okay to use the older version?

Thanks
