Good morning --

I am sorry but FDA does not oversee franchises. You will find useful information on our clinical trial website regarding clinical trials, good clinical practice, and other resources. See the web link below.

Also please see FDA's Center for Tobacco Products website below.

I need information on what is required when opening a franchise doing soft laser treatment for smoking cessation. What is an Internal Review Board. What paperwork has to be filed monthly and where. I need to know what the entire process is as I will be selling franchises. Please advise.
